

Vicki Kawelmacher

(Pronounced Call-Maker)

Inspiring Women to Thrive and Overcome

I step confidently into public speaking, delivering motivational, uplifting, and empowering messages tailored for women. Whether sharing insights from my spiritual journey, or diving into other meaningful subjects, I bring my "A" game to every stage. Speaking has become a deeply valued part of my life, allowing me to make a lasting impact on audiences. I embrace each opportunity to leave those I connect with encouraged and empowered to make positive changes.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- ✓ Award Winning Toastmaster
- ✓ Biblical Counseling
- ✓ Mentor/Coach
- ✓ Published Author
- ✓ Personal Safety Advocate
- ✓ Graphic Designer
- ✓ But my greatest accomplishment of all is the day I said YES to Jesus.

"Embrace kindness, count your blessings each day. Give abundantly, take sparingly. Discover goodness in others. Share smiles with strangers. Start with dessert. Believe in yourself, and live to make a difference."

At the heart of my life is my faith. My greatest masterpiece is my children, closely followed by serving in ministry with my husband, TK. Together, we are committed to serving our community, with faith as our guiding light.

I have dedicated most of my adult life to giving back to others.

Thank you for your consideration.

WHAT OTHERS SAY...

"It was an amazing experience working with Vicki, and I cannot recommend her enough. She is a force to be reckoned with and a speaker who will leave you wanting more."

Susan G.

"The first time I heard Vicki speak I was moved to tears. Very few speakers have this kind of a gift. Her passion is truly her calling."

Natalie B.
